

Welcome to the Mexican Caribbean

Dear Passenger,

It is our pleasure to give you the warmest welcome to Cancun and Riviera Maya, we thank you for choosing us. To help you make your trip a memorable experience, following you will find important and detailed information about your prepaid activity.

BD Experience Representative

Upon arrival at Cancun Airport, you will receive a Welcome Kit with the date, time and location to attend our Welcome Meeting with the BD Experience Representative.

If you did not purchase round trip transportation service, it is very important that you contact our main office at least 24 hours prior the excursion in order to arrange a meeting with the BD Experience Representative, below you will find the contact information.

In this meeting, you should redeem your activity vouchers with the BD Experience Representative, who will give you a BD Experience coupon considered as your Boarding pass for the excursion. It is very important for you to do this process since the BD Experience Representative will confirm you the place and pick up time for the service.

For your safety, only book your excursions with your BD Experience Representative.

Below you will find our contact information if you have any questions, requests or assistance once in destination.
